Alameda County Public Health Department Developmental Disabilities Planning and Advisory Council

The Developmental Disabilities Council works to expand opportunities for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. It envisions a world in which every individual with an intellectual and developmental disability has access to a full, meaningful life in an inclusive community.

The Developmental Disabilities Council provides a forum for discussion, advocacy, and program and policy planning for individuals with developmental disabilities, their families and service providers.

Beacon College

Beacon College - The nation's first four-year college for students who learn differently, Beacon College is a pioneer in postsecondary education for students with ADHD, dyslexia, and other learning differences. Student success can be measured by the College's graduation rates, which far exceed the national average for all students. In 2022, Beacon College was ranked the #1 school for students who learn differently for the 5th consecutive year (Best Value Schools) and recognized in the top 10 of southern colleges by U.S. News and World Report.

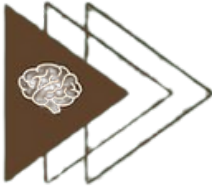

Recently, Beacon College has been making headlines for its revolutionary work in college readiness for students who learn differently. Beacon's family-centered programs begin preparing students and families for the realities of college as early as their sophomore year of high school, with virtual and on-campus options in Leesburg, FL. Beacon's regional transition experts partner with high schools nationally on college readiness tools, assessments and programming to lift outcomes for students who learn differently.

Calm Buddy Box

Calm Buddy Box was inspired by the desire to create products that support children's emotional wellbeing. We are a small business owned and operated by a group of parents, including two Licensed Clinical Social Workers, and a Board Certified Behavior Analyst. Our goal is to create experiences and products that are fun, thoughtful, and centered on mindfulness. We envision a world where children's mental and emotional wellbeing is discussed and supported as much as their physical health and academic growth. We would like to express our gratitude for your support. Thank you for joining us on this journey, and thank you to our children who are our inspiration.

Pleasanton Adult and Career Education

The Pleasanton Adult Education Paid Internship Program for Adults with Disabilities is a nine-month paid internship program from September to May. The internship provides work training and education for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities to prepare them for competitive integrated employment. The goal is for interns to leave the program with the transferable skills, knowledge, and abilities needed to be successful candidates for employment. Interns work at three different worksites during the nine-month program.

Potential interns apply to the program and are accepted through a competitive but caring selection process. All applicants must be eligible for services with the Department of Rehabilitation (DOR) and be a Regional Center client. Applications are available January-May 15 for the Fall program.
