Camp Krem

Camping Unlimited for the Developmentally Disabled

Since 1957, Camp Krem has provided "a place for Exceptional People to be themselves". Since then we have hosted an estimated 200,000 days and nights of independence-building recreation, fun and friendship to thousands of children and adults with special needs and much needed respite to their families and caregivers.

We offer six 10-day sessions in summer, and weekend activities several times a month, plus year around travel camp to such places as Disneyland, Universal Studios, Hawaii, Canada, Mexico and many national parks.

We are grateful that most costs are paid by Regional Centers.

Lindamood-Bell Learning Processes

We believe, passionately, that all children and adults can be taught to read, comprehend, spell, and do math to their potential. We identify strengths and weaknesses that may be affecting school performance. Our instruction is based on an individual’s learning needs. Some students come to us with previous diagnoses such as dyslexia, autism spectrum disorders, or general learning challenges—and we make a difference for each of them. Some students seek our help to enhance their skills or to just make learning easier—and we do.

Pleasanton Adult and Career Education

Pleasanton Adult and Career Education (PACE) Paid Internship Program for Adults with Disabilities

The PACE Paid Internship Program supports adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities in gaining hands-on workplace experience while preparing for competitive integrated employment. Each intern participates in three rotations during the nine-month program, working alongside an Employment Training Specialist and business mentors. Interns receive personalized support to build essential job skills, explore various career paths, and grow their independence.

In addition to paid work opportunities, the program includes daily work-skills classes that emphasize communication, adaptability, teamwork, and problem-solving skills, critical for success in any workplace. Interns leave the program with a resume, professional references, and continued job search and coaching support from the PACE team.

Applicants who meet program eligibility and successfully complete the interview process will have the opportunity to join this empowering experience for the 2025-2026 program year.
